

HTCIA STAR SUPPORTERS

The purpose of this program is formally identify and recognize vendors who financially support HTCIA and its members either through direct financial support in the way of donations to HTCIA and/or membership discounts.

HTICA may decline to accept any vendor support, formally recognize any membership discounts, or continue to recognize any membership discounts, if in its opinion the acceptance of same will be contrary to the bylaws or reflect unfavorably upon HTCIA.

Financial support received will be considered a gift to HTCIA to be used for training, prevention programs, and any purpose consistent with HTCIA non-profit status. No vendor may direct in any manner how the support received will be used by HTCIA.

BASIC RECOGNITION

All vendors approved by the International Executive Committee (IEC) who provide membership discounts of $50.00 or more, will be recognized in the following:

Their company logo and website, with permission, will be reflected on the “HTCIA Star Supporter Page, which is directly accessed from the HTCIA Home Page.

The details regarding the discount offered will be promoted on the Vendor Star Supporter page.

The IEC reserves the right to discontinue without notice any recognition to vendor support would be contrary to the Bylaws or reflect unfavorably upon HTCIA.

STAR RECOGNITION

Only vendors who provide financial support in addition to a discount of $50.00 or more will be considered “Star Supporters.”

Star Supporters may display “Star Supporter” and the HTCIA Logo on their website, exhibit booths, and any other marketing materials during the period of their support. The HTCIA Logo must be clearly visible and not be modified in any manner.

Star recognition may be revoked by the International Executive Committee (IEC) at any time prior to its expiration if such continued recognition would be contrary to the Bylaws or reflect unfavorably upon HTCIA. Upon notification, vendors will discontinue use of the HTCIA Logo and identification of being a Star Supporter.

Depending upon the level of financial support, additional considerations, which are reflected, will be provided.
